Road Safety

Crossing the road can be very dangerous. Adults can help you and there are some special rules to follow to make sure you can cross the roads safely.

Road Safety

On some roads there are things to help you cross, like zebra crossings...

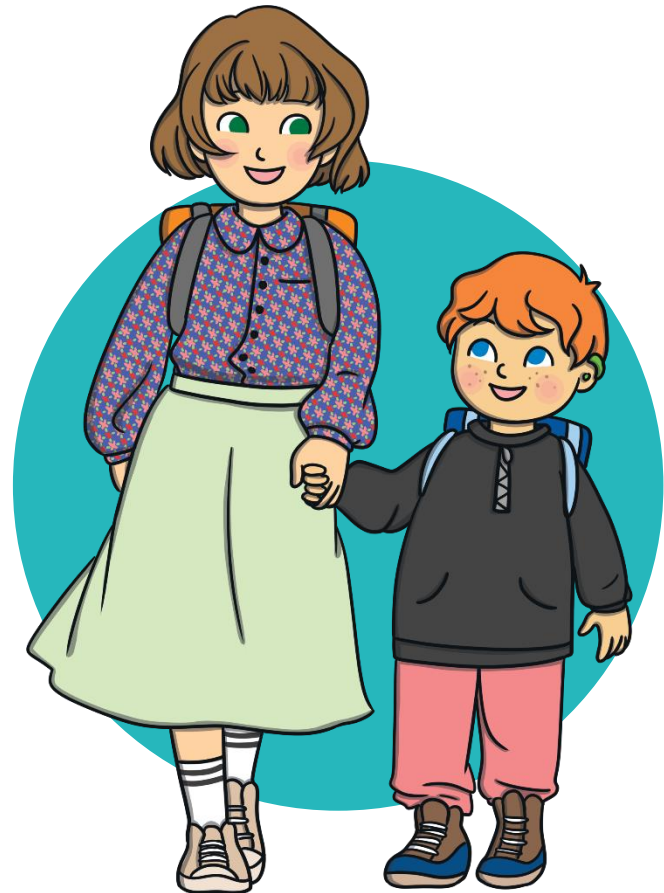

....or pelican crossings.

On some roads there are people to help you cross. The lollipop person will hold up a special sign to ask cars to stop so that people can cross the road safely.

Road Safety

When walking with an adult, hold their hand – especially when you need to cross a road.

Road Safety

There are some special rules to follow to help you keep safe around roads.

Think about where you should cross.

Make sure you can see both ways along the road.

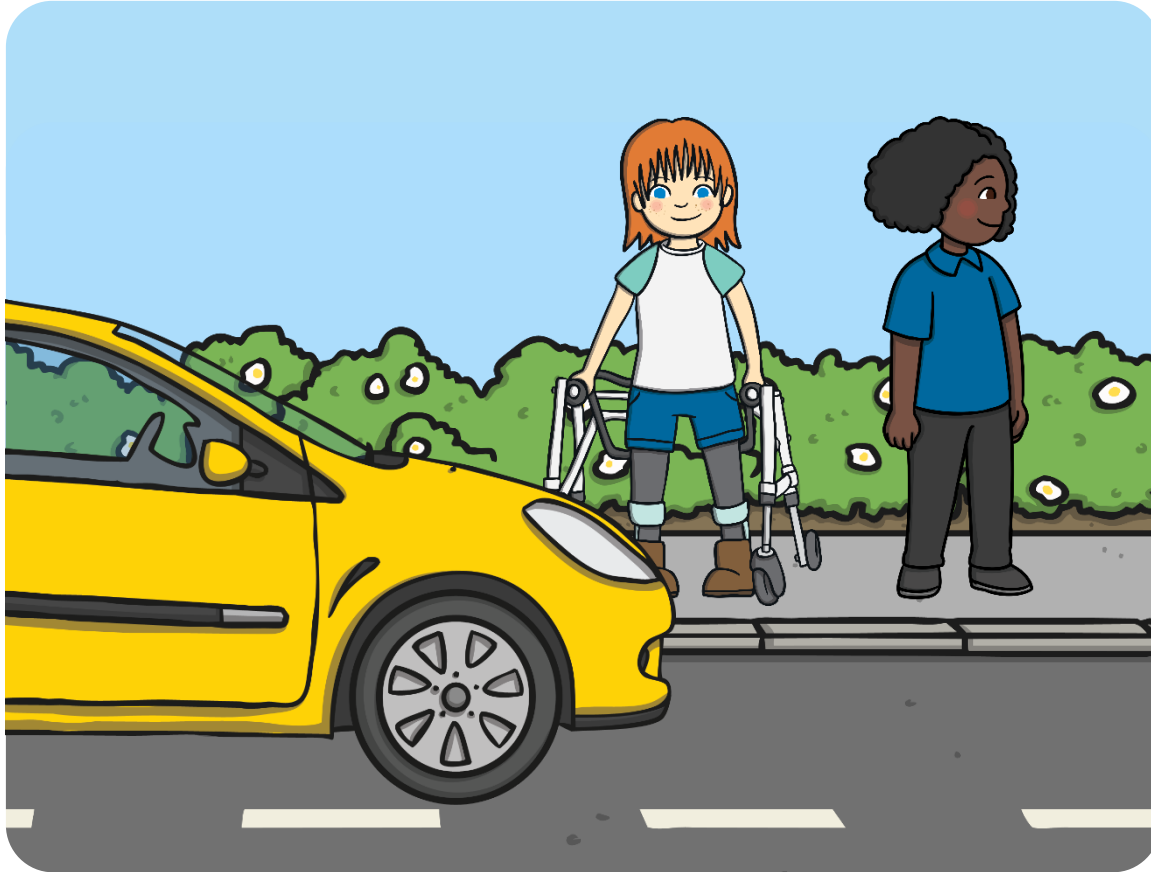

Stop at the side of the road.

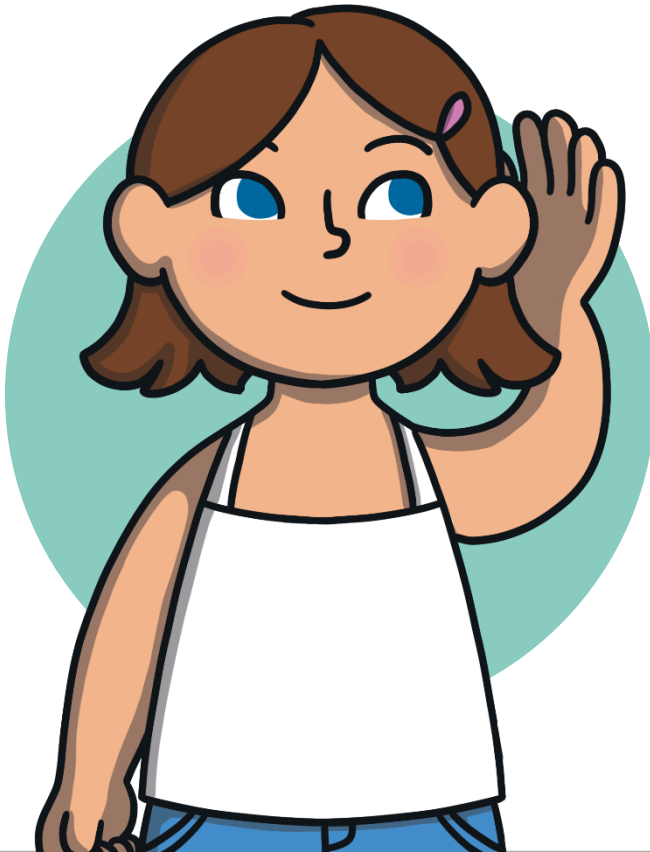

Look and listen to see and hear if any vehicles are coming.

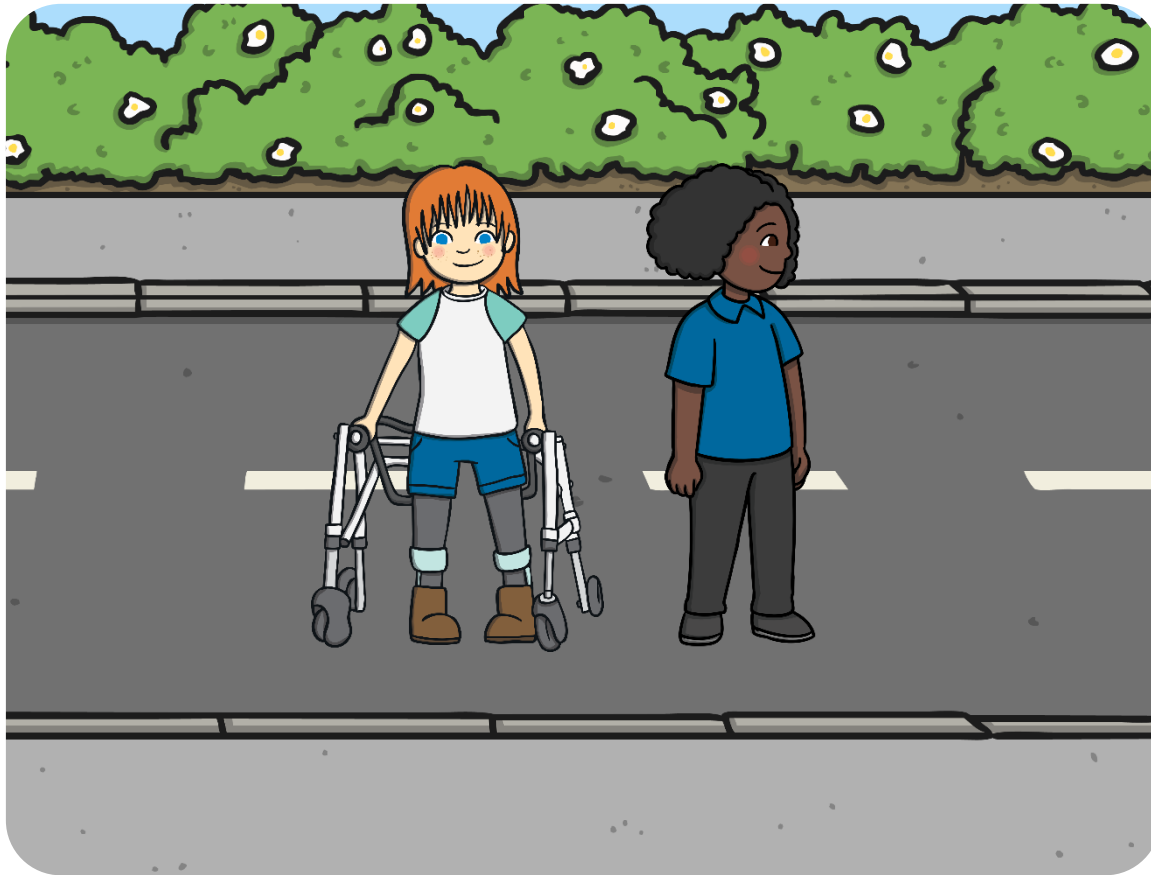

Wait until the any vehicles have gone past.

Look and listen again to see and hear if any more vehicles are coming.

Cross the road – but keep looking and listening.
