

Home Learning Activity Grid!

Make your own playdough – this is the recipe we use... https://theimaginationtree.com/best-ever-no-cook-play-dough-recipe/	Practise writing letters or numbers by tracing them in sand, flour, shaving foam or salt.	Sing along to some songs or rhymes on BBC Schools Radio – www.bbb.co.uk/teach/school-radio/nursery-rhymes-songs-index/zhwgdgwx	Do some yoga following a routine from YouTube. Search 'Cosmic kids yoga'.	Help your grown up fold the washing. Sort the clothes into colour groups.
Go on a nature hunt around the garden or local area (if you're not isolating). Count how many objects you find or create a collage with them.	Prepare a fruit salad. Chop up a banana. How many slices have you got?	Watch a CBeebies 'Bedtime Story'.	Tidy your bedroom and make your bed.	How many birds can you spot in the garden/outside? Keep a tally for the day.
Use a big bowl of water or your bath to investigate whether objects float or sink.	Look around your house, find 5 objects and order them from longest to shortest.	Help wash up the pots and pans.	Set the table for dinner, count the amount of knives and forks you need.	Practise tying your laces and zipping up your coat!
Put your socks into pairs.	Draw or paint a picture of your family. Include any pets!	Make an obstacle course in your living room.	Open all of the curtains or blinds in each room in the morning.	Help your grown up by polishing or dusting the house, washing the car, doing some gardening.
Use your recycling to make a junk model.	Draw a picture or tell someone 3 things that made you happy today.	Run 10 laps around your garden or front room.	See if your grown up will let you use some utensils, pots and pans to make instruments.	Dance and sing to your favourite song.
Practise cutting with scissors – you could cut up leaves collected from the garden, playdough, cabbage/lettuce leaves or draw some shapes on paper to cut out.	Make up a story using some of your toys.	Make a potion! You could use petals, leaves, shaving foam, soapflakes, food colouring, herbs, salt/bicarb, sprinkles etc...	Go on a shape hunt around the house! You could label the shapes you find with a sticky note or piece of paper.	Learn a poem or some jokes to tell your teacher or friends.