

How have people used their voices to change the world?

2

When? – Historical Context

What? – Key Events

	1856 Florence Nightingale campaigns for changes in Nursing
	1930 Mahatma Gandhi leads a 240 mile peaceful protest march
	1955 Rosa Parks refuses to give up her seat on a bus for a white man.
	1963 Martin Luther King make his 'I have a dream.' speech
	2011 Malala Yousafzai campaigns for the right to an education for girls
	2014 Malala wins the Nobel Peace Prize for her hard work
	2018 Greta Thunberg begins her activism to protect the environment

Who?

Rosa Parks
Campaigned for equality

Malala Yousafzai
Argued for the right to education

Key Vocabulary

	Activist A person who tries to make a change
	Campaign To argue for or against something
	Equality The idea of being equal
	Climate Change How the planet is changing
	Right Something that everyone should have Protest A group showing they are against something

Learning Links

Reception –
People can affect the environment

Year 1
Religions can give us idea of right and wrong

Year 1
People's actions can change the world